

ICUE™

Sara Asteljoki

Master of Health Care, Post Graduate student in Cambridge University, Center for Entrepreneurial Learning.

Sara is passionate about entrepreneurship, teaching, health promotion and creating new innovations to develop health care field. She has passed all her studies in international groups and has a ten year career from the Finnish health care. She currently holds a position as a Senior Lecturer in Laurea University of Applied Sciences.

She has co- founded Laurea Entrepreneurship Society and is honored to promote youth entrepreneurship globally with the International Consortium of University Entrepreneurs. Laurea Alumni Association awarded her as the Alumni of the Year 2011.

Favorite quotation: "Keep away from people who try to belittle your ambitions. Small people always do that, but the really great make you feel that you, too, can become great" – Mark Twain

Country: Finland

Organization: LaureaES (link: www.laureaes.com)

Position: Mentor & Advisor for international Affairs